News Release (Update): Possible Additional Appointments for ACDOH March 5th COVID-19 Vaccination Clinic

The Allegany County Department of Health (ACDOH) is projected to receive additional COVID-19 vaccine today (March 4, 2021) making additional appointments available for the Friday, March 5, 2021, COVID-19 vaccination clinic at Genesee Valley Central School for anyone who currently is eligible.

The additional vaccine appointments may be available at 5:00 p.m. today and the link is posted on the www.alleganyco.com website (click on the 'Vaccine Information' button on the main page). All the same rules apply to these additional appointments:

- You must be currently eligible for COVID-19 vaccine. Check your eligibility at https://covid19vaccine.health.ny.gov/ .
- You must complete the New York State COVID-19 Vaccine Form. Go to https://forms.ny.gov/s3/vaccine .
- Bring your print out or a picture/screen shot on your phone of your "Am I eligible" Form to the clinic.
- Bring your work ID, a letter from your employer or a pay stub to show employment (if you are a college instructor, you must be in person with students).
- Bring a note from your doctor or medical information showing proof of a qualifying condition.
- Please bring a picture ID and your insurance card (if you have Medicare please bring the red, white and blue card) with you to the clinic.

Date	Time	Location
Friday, March 5, 2021	9:00a.m.-3:00p.m.	Genesee Valley Central School, 1 Jaguar Drive, Belmont, NY 14813

PLEASE NOTE: If you are not eligible or do not have an appointment you may be turned away at the clinic.

To see the complete list of those eligible in phase 1A and 1B go to https://covid19vaccine.health.ny.gov/phased-distribution-vaccine

Please remain patient as we are only able to vaccinate as many individuals as we have doses. If you need assistance with registration due to lack of internet access, please contact our office at 585-268-9250.
