News Release: Positive Cases Update from Knights Creek Church Gathering

The Allegany County Department of Health (ACDOH) has identified 18 positive COVID-19 cases related to a gathering at Knights Creek Church on Saturday, October 10, 2020. If you, or anyone you are associated or living with, attended a gathering around this time period at Knights Creek Church and are having symptoms of COVID-19 please remain vigilant about your symptoms and self-quarantine if you are symptomatic. Please call your healthcare provider or the ACDOH at 585-268-9250 to be tested for COVID-19.

ACDOH continues to identify, notify, and monitor all identified contacts of these cases. If you are named as a contact to any of these cases, you will be notified by phone, and given information on quarantine, symptoms to look for, and procedures you must follow to keep you, your family, friends, and neighbors safe from COVID-19. If you believe you may have come in contact with a positive COVID-19 case, please contact our office to discuss the situation. Our office will continue to keep you updated as this situation evolves.

If you have general COVID-19 questions, you may call the Allegany County Department of Health at (585)268-9250 for more information.
