Monday, March 23, 2020

Allegany County: Health Department reports some encouraging news

The Allegany County Department of Health announced late Sunday that all 37 individuals that were tested for COVID-19 last Tuesday have come back NEGATIVE. Health officials said the two positive cases in Allegany County continue to recover and recuperate and are doing very well.